

COOKIE POLICY

1. What are Cookies?

A cookie is a small file that requests permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added, and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets businesses know when you visit a particular site. Cookies enable web applications to respond to you as an individual by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

Cookies help us provide you with a better website by enabling us to monitor the pages that you find useful and tailor our website to your needs, likes, and dislikes. The cookies we use cannot execute code or deliver viruses. They are utilized for essential website functionality, analytical purposes, and marketing, ensuring you receive content aligned with your interests. Kanak Capital Market respects your privacy and provides tools to manage your cookie preferences.

2. Kanak Capital Market Cookie Policy

Kanak Capital Market uses several types of cookies to deliver products and services effectively. These cookies are categorized as follows:

2.1. Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website's functionality and our products and services. They enable you to browse the website, complete trading account applications, remember your login details, initiate web chats, and access other website features. Disabling these cookies may limit your ability to fully access our platform.

2.2. Analytical Cookies

These cookies help us improve our offerings and website functionality by tailoring the site to your preferences. They allow us to monitor website usage and performance.

2.3. Marketing Cookies

These cookies enable us to provide information to visitors on third-party websites and measure the effectiveness of our marketing initiatives. We adhere to industry best practices in using marketing cookies. The information collected is anonymized and cannot identify you as an individual. However, if you choose not to accept these cookies, you may not fully benefit from the website.
